

Networking at Burgess Hill School for Girls

Burgess Hill School for Girls hosted a networking dinner to give Sixth Form students the opportunity to practise their business rapport in preparation for their future careers.

Guests were invited from a wide range of professional backgrounds and included Pamela Bowyer-Nye, Marketing Director (UK & Ireland) for Wrigley, Charlotte Vere, Executive Director of the Girls' School Association (GSA) and Nathan Stride, Managing Director of Stride Creative based in Sussex.

The event involved welcome drinks and a three-course meal in the dining room.

The after dinner speaker was Major Andy Reid, Project Leader at Jurassic Shark Expeditions. Major Reid spoke about his work diving, tagging and monitoring sharks all over the world and the threat of extinction that sharks are now under.

Donations on the night will go to The Prince's Trust, a charity which helps disadvantaged young people launch their own businesses through The Prince's Trust Enterprise Programme. ■
